Dear John,

I talked with Kyo this morning, and he suggested we send this brief proposal to you. We will be in and out of Boston for the next 6 weeks until we leave for South Africa (for a workshop on drafting with Gauteng's legislative drafting personnel). But if you leave word with the secretary at 617-353-3140, or e-mail us, we'll get back to you ASAP.

Kyo told me of your trip. Sounds great—and exhausting! Hope all goes well with you.

As always,

Ann & Bob Seidman

Purpose of Mission: To discuss each country's possible contribution to a regional program to strengthen national and regional legislative drafting capacities while producing legislation to facilitate expanded regional trade and development among SADC countries.

Countries and contacts to be visited:

Cape Town: Honorable Minister of Justice, Mr. Dullah Omar; Prof. Darcy du Toit, Department of Public and Adjective Law, University of Western Cape.

Namibia: Mr. Stephen Adei, UNDP representative; Honorable Minister of Justice, N. Tjirianjane; Mr. W.J. Potgeiter, Law Reform and Development Commission; Mr. Walter W.J. Kamba, Dean, Faculty of Law, University of Namibia;

Zimbabwe: Mr. P.A. Chinamas, MP, Attorney General; Mr. J.B. Zowa, Dean, Faculty of Law, University of Zimbabwe;

Botswana: Vice Chancellor of the University of Botswana, Thomas Tlou; Office of the Prime Minister responsible for Administration of Justice.

Budget:

Transport within Southern Africa: Assuming the worst case scenario, the cost of travel would be about $2000 for each of us, for total regional travel costs of $4000

Honorara: 8 working days (2 days in each country) for 2 @250/day ............................................ $4000

Per diem: 10 days (to allow for days in transit) for 2 @100/day (?4) ............................................ $2000

TOTAL (outside estimate) ............................................ $10000

1 Note: Most of these comprise individuals who have expressed an interest; the discussions would provide an opportunity to work out the details of a coordinated, on-going program between countries.

2 If available time or funds require reducing this program, we recommend cutting off Botswana first, then Zimbabwe.

3 Here in Boston, we have obtained estimated costs of flights between Johannesburg, where we will be based, and the capitol of the three countries plus Cape Town, ranging from $190 to $500 round-trip. We hope to obtain tickets in South Africa at the lower end of the range.

4 Whatever the going UNDP rate is for Southern Africa.
