Panel discussion: The end of the affair? "New" Europe and the United States

Michnik, Adam
Boston University Institute for Human Sciences

http://hdl.handle.net/2144/20143
Boston University
Board of Directors

Timothy Garton Ash
Director, Center for European Studies, St. Antony's College, Oxford

Irena Grudzinska Gross
Professor of Modern Foreign Languages and Literatures, Boston University (Executive Director)

James Hoge
Editor-in-Chief, Foreign Affairs

Ira Katznelson
Ruggles Professor of Political Science and History, Columbia University

Michael Mertes
Partner at “dimap consult”, a commercial think tank based in Bonn and Berlin

Krzysztof Michalski
Professor of Philosophy, Boston University; Rector, IWM, Vienna (Chair)

Pierre Rosanvallon
Director of Studies, Centre de Recherches Politiques Raymond Aron, EHESS, Paris; Professor of Modern and Contemporary Politics, Collège de France

Lilia Shevtsova
Senior Associate, Carnegie Moscow Center

Aleksander Smolar
Senior Research Fellow at the CNRS, Paris; President, Stefan Batory Foundation, Warsaw

Fareed Zakaria
Editor-in-chief, Newsweek International

The Institute for Human Sciences at Boston University serves as a forum for new, non-partisan debate, research, and education in the matters of international (especially transatlantic) relations, introducing European insights and experiences to American debates on major social and political issues, and bringing American perspectives to bear on European discussions.

www.bu.edu/ihs

The Polish American Networking Organization (PANO) is the only Polish not-for-profit organization focused on professional networking. PANO takes a leading role in facilitating career opportunities, mentoring relationships and networking relationships for its members, with emphasis on education and personal growth. NetNites - monthly networking events - gather students, working professionals, business representatives, university professors, lawyers and artists, who come together to actively put PANO's mission to work.

www.pano-boston.org