2005

Latino Heritage Month series

Boston University Howard Thurman Center for Common Ground

http://hdl.handle.net/2144/22833

Boston University
The Howard Thurman Center preserves, shares, and interprets the legacy of Dr. Howard Thurman. The Center focuses on race, culture, and ethnicity and works to build community among individuals, groups, races, cultures, religions, and ethnicities, based on Howard Thurman’s belief in “The Unity of All People.” The Center outreaches to all Boston University students and creates an all-inclusive environment of respect, dignity, and pride.

Learning to Unlearn
Looking at stereotypes
Thursday, October 20, 2005
6pm
The Howard Thurman Center Lounge

Negotiating Identities: LGBT Latinos Speak Out
Panel Discussion
Monday, October 17, 2005
6pm
The Howard Thurman Center Lounge

Photographic Discussion
Thursday, October 20, 2005
6pm
The Howard Thurman Center Lounge

A discussion on culture, life, race & society in Cuba through the eyes of a photographer

Tuesday, October 25, 2005
6pm
The Howard Thurman Center Lounge

For more information contact
The Howard Thurman Center
775 Commonwealth Avenue
Lower Level
Boston, MA 02215
617-353-4745
Latino Heritage Month Series

Learning to Unlearn
A Discussion about Stereotypes

Presented by

Elvin Freytes
Office of Residence Life

Thursday, October 20, 2005
6p.m.

The Howard Thurman Center Lounge
(GSU Lower Level)
Latino Heritage Month Series

Negotiating Identities
LGBT Latinos Speak Out

Panel Discussion
Moderated by
Osvaldo Del Valle
Office of Residence Life

Monday, October 17, 2005
6pm – 8pm

The Howard Thurman Center Lounge
(GSU Lower Level)

The Howard Thurman Center
775 Commonwealth Avenue
Lower Level
Boston, MA 02215
617-353-4745

The Howard Thurman Center preserves, shares, and interprets the legacy of Dr. Howard Thurman. The Center focuses on race, culture, and ethnicity and works to build community among individuals, groups, races, cultures, religions, and ethnicities, based on Howard Thurman’s belief in “The Unity of All People. The Center outreaches to all Boston University students and creates an all-inclusive environment of respect, dignity and pride.
Latino Heritage Month Series

Photographic discussion of Cuba

A discussion on culture, life, race and society in Cuba through the eyes of a photographer

Presented by
Daryl DeLuca
Office of Judicial Affairs & Safety Programs

Tuesday, October 25, 2005
6pm
The Howard Thurman Center Lounge
(GSU Lower Level)